

Kingdom Leadership Foundations

By Dr. Michael Brodeur

Module 1 Worksheet:

Module Summary

In Module 1, you explored the foundations of leadership through Kingdom principles. This module introduced the concept of being called to lead, highlighted the purpose behind leadership, and set the stage for your journey as a Kingdom-minded leader.

Key Takeaways

- Every follower of Jesus is called to lead in some capacity, starting with self-leadership.
 - Effective leadership requires clarity of purpose, collaboration, and a commitment to growth.
 - Building relationships and fostering community are vital aspects of impactful leadership.
-

Reflection Questions

1. What does it mean to you personally to be called to lead? How have you experienced this calling in your life?

"Many are called, but few are chosen." Reflect on how you feel called to leadership and what steps you have taken.

2. Reflect on the idea of a "Level Ten Leader." What characteristics do you think define such a leader?

"Leadership is influence, nothing more, nothing less." - John Maxwell. How do you influence others as a leader?

Kingdom Leadership Foundations

By Dr. Michael Brodeur

3. Why is community important in leadership? How can you foster meaningful connections in your leadership journey?

"No man is an island." How can you contribute to and draw strength from your community?

Practical Exercise

Activity: Identify Your Leadership Goals

Examples

Leadership Area	Actionable Step
Communication	Practice active listening in team meetings.
Vision-Casting	Draft a mission statement for my team.
Team Collaboration	Schedule a weekly check-in meeting.

Kingdom Leadership Foundations

By Dr. Michael Brodeur

Your Goals

- Write down three key areas where you feel called to grow as a leader (e.g., communication, decision-making, vision-casting).
- For each area, describe one actionable step you can take this week to start improving.

Leadership Area	Actionable Step

Action Plan

Next Steps:

1. Reflect on Your Leadership Calling

- Prompt: Set aside a specific date and time to reflect on what being called to lead means to you. Consider how your leadership aligns with your values and calling.
- Date and Time:

- Reflection Notes:

Kingdom Leadership Foundations

By Dr. Michael Brodeur

2. Identify Mentors or Peer Groups

- Prompt: Think about people who inspire you or can provide guidance and accountability in your leadership journey. Write their names below.
- Write down the names of mentors or peers:

3. Share Your Insights

- Prompt: Reflect on one key insight from this module and plan to share it with someone you trust. Discuss how it applies to your leadership journey.
- Insight to Share:

- With Whom:

Kingdom Leadership Foundations

By Dr. Michael Brodeur

Going Deeper

- Write a one-paragraph statement about how this module has changed your perspective on leadership. Focus on the key lessons you have learned and how you will apply them.

Encouragement Note

"Leadership is a journey. Every small step you take today brings you closer to fulfilling your purpose. Trust the process and embrace the growth."

