KLF - Module 1.2 Notes

Welcome - Understanding the Journey to Become a Level Ten Leader

In this session, you'll explore the journey of leadership through personal experiences and the lessons learned along the way. Leadership is not just about the roles we hold but the transformation that occurs within us as we grow in character, faith, and influence.

A. My Story of Coming to Christ: From Hippie Home to Leader in Church, Business, and Family

- Raised with very few rules and little structure.
- Gave my life to Jesus in 1975 while hitchhiking around the world.
- Discipled by believers on a Blackfoot Indian reservation.
- Started my first business at 17 and my second at 20.

B. Ministry as an Evangelist and Pastor

- Began ministry in 1977 as an associate leader of a church plant in San Francisco.
- Met my wife Diane at an outreach in San Francisco.
- Mentored by John Wimber at Vineyard Anaheim in the early '80s.
- In 1984, planted a Vineyard Church starting with four people in our living room, which grew to 1,000 people with 70 small groups and many ministries.

C. Ministry as a Coach and Pastor to Leaders and Pastors

- Mentored by leaders like Peter Wagner, Ed Silvoso, and Paul Pillei from India.
- Received prophetic words about becoming a pastor to pastors.
- Pastored in San Francisco for over 33 years.
- Transitioned from pastoral ministry in 2010 to pursue a calling to coach pastors.
- Launched DestinyFinder.com and PastorsCoach.com.
- Worked with Jesus Culture and taught at Bethel School of Supernatural Ministry.
- Partnered with Catch The Fire to launch Leaders Alliance.
- Currently coaching hundreds of leaders in the church and marketplace.

D. Recommendation: Get a Journal

- Taking notes will help you reflect on your leadership journey.
- Journaling your thoughts and growth can provide clarity and track your development over time.

Reflection Questions:

1. What is your story?

2. What are the first three steps you think you need to take to become a level ten leader?

3. How has your story prepared you for leadership?

Activation:

Write a short paragraph below describing your story of becoming a leader.

Leadership is a journey of growth, learning, and transformation. Embrace your story as a unique part of the leadership path you're on.
